Samurai Sam's giving away Phoenix Suns memorabilia

04 Mar 2010

Samurai Sam's Teriyaki Grill, a proud sponsor of the Phoenix Suns, is going orange and showcasing its Orange Peel Chicken Bowl along with a sporty giveaway whenever the Suns take to the court at US Airways Center.

Throughout the month of March, the first 25 people to order the Orange Peel Chicken Bowl on Phoenix Suns home game days will receive a free five-inch souvenir basketball.

The logoed ball will be available for a limited time at any of the 15 Valley locations, with the exception of US Airways Center. All participating stores will be giving away 25 balls on each of the home game days in March.

One of Samurai Sam's more popular dishes, the Orange Peel Chicken Bowl has only 530 calories and 4 grams of fat.

In addition, Samurai Sam's is hosting a text-to-win contest throughout the month where one lucky Suns fan will receive a pair of courtside seats to watch the Suns take on the Denver Nuggets on April 13, in the regular season finale at US Airways Center. By texting "COURTSIDE" to 38681, fans will be entered for the chance to win.

Samurai Sam's, which features a quick-service Japanese-style menu, has nearly 60 locations worldwide, including 15 in the Phoenix market.
